

PRESS RELEASE: for immediate release
20 February 2013

VLV concerned about level of 4G disruption

After the announcement from Ofcom of the results of the 4G auction, Voice of the Listener & Viewer Chairman, Colin Browne, said “we remain very concerned about the level of disruption 4G will cause to public television services. It is vital that the proposed mitigation measures are fit for purpose and adequately funded”.

NOTES TO EDITORS

Voice of the Listener & Viewer (VLV) is an independent, non-profit-making association, free from political, commercial and sectarian affiliations, working for quality and diversity in British broadcasting. VLV represents the interests of listeners and viewers as citizens and consumers across the full range of broadcasting issues. VLV is concerned with the structures, regulation, funding and institutions that underpin the British Broadcasting system. VLV does not handle complaints but is in touch with Members of Parliament, Government, media regulators and broadcasters; publishes briefings, responses to public consultations and a quarterly newsletter; holds conferences and other events in different parts of the UK, open to the public at affordable prices; organises visits for its members to broadcasting centres and holds annual Awards for Excellence in Broadcasting.

VLV responds to all relevant consultations from government, regulators and broadcasters and spokespersons comment on current issues. Recent submissions have included responses to the House of Lords Select Committee on Communications on Media Convergence; to DCMS on the five Communications Review Seminars, to the BBC Trust on its review of BBC Online and BBC Red Button and Ofcom on its Work Plan 2013/14.

VLV is run by a board of directors. Jocelyn Hay, who founded VLV in 1983, remains its president.
